GOODFELLOW OF RUSHTON SPENCER IN RUSHTON, STAFFS

ARMS:

CREST:

Two Anabaptists, Thomas and William Goodfellow, who were recorded in Leek parish in 1665, were members of the Goodfellow family of Wall Hill Farm. (Footnote 40) In 1699 the same or another Thomas Goodfellow registered a meeting place in Leek parish for protestant worship. (Footnote 41) The place was probably the farmhouse on the east side of Woodhouse Green hamlet where Baptists held services from the later 17th century.

[L.J.R.O., B/C/11], Thos. Goodfellow (1662), mentioning his sons Thos. and Wm.;

Thomas Goodfellow of Ruston Spencer in Rushton, Staffs "gentleman" c1558-
m 21 Oct 1588 Biddulph: Margery Thorley
(not present at coronation of Charles I and later fined œ for knighthood) 2 Feb 1625.6

Thomas Goodfellow
m Ann .....
chn: Thomas Goodfellow c 31 Aug 1634 Leek

(4/3/05)